NOTE: This is the third report in a series dealing with SMD installations in Berlin/Weissensee. The last report in this series was MGB-4846/BSC-846. The series is intended as a graphic indication of the size and equipment of SMD in Berlin. The attached floor plans are sketches only, not to scale. Room numbers used in the attached plans are not the actual numbers in use in the buildings, but were used by source for convenience in reporting.

1. Attachment "A":

a. The group of buildings represented on this attachment are across the street from the main SMD building, Park Strasse 15 (cf. MGB-4559/BSC-822). It is believed all the buildings in this group are part of the former florist enterprise of Adolf GRILLT, owner of the villa described in MGB-4846/BSC-846. In addition to the two buildings used for offices, Park Strasse 95 and 98 (cf. Attachments "A" and "B"), this group includes an automobile work shop, a ten-car garage, and a commissary used by Russian employees of SMD.

b. Names of chauffeurs as reported by source are: RUESTERFELD (a former NSDAP member), SCHIENCKE, MAYER, GALLERSTEDT, KAUFMANN, GAWLOCK (a fanatical communist), and JURENDE.

2. Attachment "B" (Park Strasse 98):

a. Room 1: An Interpreter, DANILOV.

b. Room 2: Chief of the Economic News Department, Maj PERELOVSKY.

Field Comment: According to information contained in MGB-4937/BSC-845 received from the same source, the Economics Section is soon to be combined with the Foreign Section under a Capt. SHIROGOROV.

c. Room 3: Herr UNGER, German, head of German labour.

d. Room 4: Herr SCHULTZ, German, in charge of German pay-rolls and pay records.

e. Four attic rooms in this building are empty and unused.

f. Of four basement rooms, one is unused and three are used for storage of food supplies issued to Russians in the commissary behind this building.
